She is a Certified Immigration Consultant and a member of the Canadian Society of Immigration Consultants. She heads the immigration section and is the director of immigration services of Ocean Pacific Immigration Associates Ltd. Her goals are to help people from around the world to live, work, visit or study. She also welcomes the opportunity to help families to improve their lives and sometimes "escaping" from persecution or situations where they have slim chances to build a better future in their part of the world. She completed her Immigration Certificate at UBC and graduated from California State University, Fullerton with her Masters Degree in Communications (Public Relations). She is fluent in English, Mandarin, Cantonese and Si Yi . With a strong background in administration and marketing, she is an asset to her clients.

In her spare time (if there is any) she is also a composer and pianist which accounts for her strong communications and listening skills. As a musician, she studied in Canada and the United Kingdom and completed her BA in music. She is also an artist/painter in her other spare moments. Her artistic background brings attention to detail which skill is beneficial to both her business and her clients. Contact her by email at shoi@oceanpacificca.com.

On the community services side, she is currently on board of the Victoria Chinese Commerce Association and Victoria Hoi Ping Association. As well, she is a member of Rotary Club of Victoria, mentor of UVic Business students and representative of Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association. She was on the selection committee of Leadership Victoria from 2006 to 2010 and a volunteer for the Bridges for Women Society to train participants on interviews skills, key official in Resource Management for the Victoria Dragon Boat Festival, etc.
