

Sinclair Mar, Assoc. Dip (Mus), BA (Psych), JD

Sinclair is an entrepreneur, community leader, business strategist, strategic counsel and legal strategist. He has been part of the growth of many businesses and professionals, providing support particularly in the marketing and business networking and referral areas. His community interests have been to support community non-profits and sharing of cultures.

With consummate community spirit he is or has been a member, a chair, a director, executive, counsel or advisor to over 20 non-profit organizations so far during his career. He received the C-Fax Community Leader of the Year Award and received civic and many service awards from other organizations.

As a lawyer, entrepreneur and strategist, he has been a sought after strategist for many businesses, groups and individuals. He has helped hundreds of clients, businesses, professionals and new immigrants in their quest for success over his career.